DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicants' election without traverse of Species I (i.e., Claims 1-3, 5-25, and 38-40) in the reply filed on 20 October 2006 is acknowledged and appreciated.
3. Claims 4 and 26-37 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 20 October 2006.
4. This application contains claims directed to at least the following patentably distinct species:

Species I, drawn to a liquid crystal display device including a light sensing part, wherein each of the sensing parts comprises: a second switching device being turned on in response to the incident light to output a first signal that is applied to the data line; a third switching device outputting the first signal provided from the second switching device in response to a second signal applied to the gate line; and a first sensor line receiving the first signal from the third switching device and transmitting the first signal to the control part (see Fig. 5; and Page 11, Line 22 - Page 12, Line 22 of the instant specification, for instance);

Species II, drawn to a liquid crystal display device including a light sensing part, wherein each of the sensing parts comprises: a first sensor line receiving a first signal from the control part; a second switching device outputting the first signal in response to the light; a third switching device outputting the first signal provided from the second switching device in response to a second signal provided from the gate line; and a second sensor line providing the control part with the first signal outputted from the third switching device (see Fig. 9; and Page 17, Lines 8-19 of the instant specification, for instance); and

Species III, drawn to a liquid crystal display device including a compression sensing part, wherein the sensing part comprises: a capacitor formed with an electrode line and a pyroelectric thin film, an insulation layer being interposed between the electrode line and the pyroelectric thin film, the capacitor storing a first signal in response to the infrared light; a second switching device outputting the first signal stored in the capacitor in response to a second signal provided from the gate line; and a sensor line receiving the first signal from the second switching device and transmitting the first signal to the control part (see Fig. 13; and Page 20, Line 13 - Page 21, Line 6 of the instant specification, for instance).

The species are independent or distinct because the species do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the species are not obvious variants; and the species each have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, and effect.

Applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-3, 5, 6, 15-17, 20-22, and 38 appear to be generic.

Applicants are advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicants will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicants must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

5. A telephone call was made to K. Jenny Sung (Registration Number 48,639) on 8 January 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicants traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicants should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

6. Applicants are reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
